THE EPIPHANY OF THE LORD

JANUARY 6, 2019

They opened their treasures and offered him gifts of gold, frankincense, and myrrh.

Matthew 2:11

Merry Christmas! Happy New Year! I'll be out of town until January 14th. I will be celebrating a 50th Wedding Anniversary, attending a conference for priests, and taking a few vacation days. Thank you for welcoming our visiting priests to our parish.

Our Franciscan friends, Fr. Vito and Fr. John and my classmate Monsignor Lyle were kind enough to make time from their busy schedules to celebrate the Eucharist with us. I'm grateful for their generosity.

I will be back to attend the Jan 15th Presbyteral Council Meeting where the latest Renew My Church recommendation for the north end of Bridgeport will be presented to Cardinal Cupich. The details are still being fine-tuned and I will write about the recommendation in next week's bulletin.

I hope you enjoy the reflections presented in today's column. I always enjoy the writings of Fr. Kavanaugh and Padre Leoz. Peace. Pmc

The Child Must Draw Us

"The star stopped over the place where the child was."

One of the benefits of giving lectures in different parts of the country is the chance to see both the wide diversity and the deep unity of our faith. Thus, I take every opportunity to attend Sunday liturgy in some local parish of an unfamiliar city.

The highlight for me (in 1997) was Our Lady of Grace in Greensburg, Pennsylvania, I felt like I was in on some great conspiracy of life and love: a young girl boldly proclaiming the Word of God, the commissioning of teachers and parents as primary educators, a family of five celebrating its tenth year as they bore gifts to the altar, and waves of believers — grade-schoolers, teenagers and white-haired octogenarians — receiving Communion.

What struck me most, however, was the homily of the pastor, Father Larry Kiniry.

LA FE LES PUSO EN CAMINO Por Javier Leoz

Que el Nacimiento de Cristo fue dócil y silencioso, todos lo sabemos. Dios así lo quiso y en propias carnes lo vivieron como nadie Jesús, José y María. La estrella, inquieta, aguda, inteligente y protectora, no dejó de destellar radiante y divina luz para señalar la Gloria de Dios que emergía en una pobre gruta. Los pastores, aun en su pobreza, se convirtieron en millonarios acaudalados por un amor de Dios que recompensaba con creces fríos, soledades e indignancias.

Y para que no faltara nada, para enriquecer y engrandecer el Misterio, en el silencio y en medio de dunas y de desiertos, tres coronas sobre tres sienas destellaban y avanzaban en el horizonte. ¡Tres reyes en movimiento! ¡Tres reyes que, atesorándolo todo, intuían que carecían de lo más importante! Hoy, en esta fiesta de Epifanía, los Magos se convierten en antenas por las que Dios, pasa a ser conocido y recibido, revelado y manifestado a todos los pueblos.

Me gusta expresar, y lo digo una vez más, que los Reyes Magos el gigantesco pergamino real con el que Dios se hizo anunciar, a pesar de su humildad, a todo hombre.

Conducidos por la estrella, tentados por Herodes y mil circunstancias, sus reinos, tronos y riquezas no fueron obstáculo alguno para alcanzar la meta deseada: ¿Dónde está el Rey de los Judíos? ¡Hemos visto su estrella y venimos adorarle!

En esta noche, los sueños y las aspiraciones de miles de niños habrán sido cumplidos por la presencia de unos Magos que, dejando año tras año palacios y comodidades, se cuelan por balcones y ventanas para traer sus presentes.

Pero ¿qué obsequio es el más caro, el más codiciado y guardado por los Reyes Magos? ¿Qué regalo, con disgusto de estos regios personajes, queda con frecuencia y en abundancia en los almacenes de sus reinos?

¿Queréis saberlo? ¡El regalo de la fe! ¡El regalo de la esperanza! ¡El regalo del amor a Dios! ¡Cuántos regalos que nadie y muy pocos piden o pedimos!

El resplandor de los Magos fue la estrella; el premio fue contemplar cara a cara al Señor; el

He revealed, in a way I had not seen before, how redemptive the presence of children can be in our lives. Not only does Jesus welcome the children, not only does he welcome the child in all of us; we ourselves must do the same.

There is a wisdom in the openness of a child, an insight in its vulnerability. A child must trust us and rely on our fidelity. A child teaches us to forgive and to ask forgiveness. A child seals and expresses our love, our commitments. A child shows us how to play again, how to laugh, and how to hug.

Children draw us together at their baptisms, their first Communion, their graduations. We are proud of them, happy for them. We go to their endless ball games, cheer for them, ache for them, heal their hurts, celebrate their victories. We thrill at the one line they may speak in their first play, the halting melody at their first recital. "A little child shall lead them."

Isaiah dreamed dreams for the child Israel. It is a vision about every child. Splendor. Your light is here. There is the glory of God here. No matter what darkness covers our earth, no matter how thick the clouds, there is a hidden glory shining here, a radiance. We have but to raise our eyes and look about us, to see our sons and daughters, close or afar. They are the gifts and the magic that make our hearts throb and rise with abundance. More dear than the wealth of nations and sea treasure, more lavish than caravans of gifts, more precious than gold, more fragrant than incense, in them we praise God.

God's secret plan, Paul wrote, is that we are all co-heirs of God's glory in Jesus. Every mother's child bears his face. All members of his body share in his promise.

The astrologers, having seen his star, searched for the newborn king. Herod was frightened of the baby. The defenseless child was a menace to something cold and hard in him. He wanted to kill, not to see the glory.

In Pennsylvania or Louisiana, St. Louis or Manhattan, in our great parade of parish life, let us go to the child. Like sages, let us delight at seeing the star, at entering the house, at seeing the mother. Let us do homage. Let us open the gifts of our hearts.

John Kavanaugh, SJ

detalle, ofrecerle sus sagrados dones en incienso, oro y mirra...y el compromiso como heraldos de lo que vieron y oyeron, fue -una vez en sus respectivos reinos- dirigir el afecto y el vasallaje de sus paisanos al REY DE REYES.

Que nosotros, como los Reyes, nos movamos por aquello que merezca la pena. Que solicitemos de su magnanimidad obsequios que nos hagan ricos por dentro y no juguetees en manos de muchos por fuera. Uno de ellos, y permitidme que os lo diga con total franqueza, es el de manifestar públicamente, sin miedo ni vergüenza lo que sentimos por Cristo. Lo que apreciamos a Jesús. Lo que queremos a nuestra Iglesia.

Ellos ofrecieron sus cofres a rebosar de oro, incienso y mirra. Todos tenemos un gran cofre en el interior de cada uno. ¡Volquémoslo sobre Belén! Un corazón que se ha dado de frente con la Navidad, como ocurrió con los Reyes, se da, se ofrece, se entrega, se vacía, se postra.

Hermanos; niños, jóvenes, padres y mayores... ¡me gustan estos Reyes en movimiento! Fueron soñadores, idealistas, aventureros, emprendedores. No repararon en lo que dejaban atrás. Ante Herodes se mostraron valientes y decididos y... cuando se percataron de la estrella... no dudaron en creer que era cosa de Dios y, como niños, corrieron -no sé si en camello o dromedario- al encuentro del que era un Niño-Dios.

Bienvenidos sean estos regios personajes que, después de emprender su aventura y de regresar a sus respectivos dominios, nos hacen caer en la cuenta que, después de las navidades, hemos de retornar a nuestras vidas por caminos opuestos a la apatía, la vergüenza, la falta de fe, el pesimismo, el poderío, el orgullo o el cansancio.

Organicemos entre todos, Iglesia, Papa, Obispos, sacerdotes, laicos, religiosos, niños y mayores, colegios y cristianos de todo el mundo una gran manifestación. ¡Dios ha hablado por Jesús! ¡Que nadie apague su voz! ¡Seamos, también nosotros, pancarta de lo que en estos días ha ocurrido en Belén! ¡Ha bajado el amor de Dios y...ha de marchar y multiplicarse con nosotros en nuestros pequeños o grandes reinos! Que en este Año Santo de la Fe, como os Magos, nos pongamos en camino, sigamos la estrella, descubramos lo que se encuentra debajo del pesebre y demos testimonio del Verbo Encarnado. ¿Os parece ese un buen regalo con motivo de este Año de la Fe? Comencemos a desarrollarlo
